Section 58-132. Complaint procedure.

(a) An individual claiming to be aggrieved by an unlawful practice relating to race, color, religion, sex, age, familial status, handicap or national origin may seek the Commission's assistance in contacting the Kentucky Commission on Human Rights, or such other applicable state or federal agency with which a complaint may be filed. The complaint must be filed within six months after the alleged unlawful practice occurred. Upon such filing, the Kentucky Commission on Human Rights, or other applicable state or federal agency will be delegated all functions, duties, and powers with respect to investigating, conciliating, hearing, determining, ordering, certifying, reporting, or otherwise acting as to any work, business, or matter regarding such claim.

(b) An individual claiming to be aggrieved by an unlawful practice relating to gender identity or sexual orientation may file with the Commission a written (sworn) complaint stating that an unlawful practice has been committed, setting forth the facts upon which the complaint is based, and setting forth the facts sufficient to enable the Commission to identify the person(s) charged (respondent(s)). The complaint must be filed within six months after the alleged unlawful practice occurred.

- (1) Upon filing of the complaint, the Commission, or its designated committee, shall, after notifying the City Manager's office, make a prompt and full investigation of each complaint.
- (2) If it is determined that there is no probable cause to believe that the respondent is engaged in an unlawful practice, the Commission shall issue an order dismissing the complaint.
- (3) If it is determined, after investigation, that there is probable cause to believe the respondent has engaged in an unlawful practice, the Commission shall endeavor to eliminate the alleged unlawful practice by conference conciliation, and persuasion. The terms of the conciliation agreement reached with the respondent may require him to refrain from the commission of unlawful discriminatory practices in the future and make such further provisions as may be agreed upon between the Commission and the respondent. Except for the terms of the conciliation agreement, neither the Commission nor any officer or employee thereof shall make public, without the written consent of the complainant and the respondent, information concerning efforts in a particular case to eliminate an unlawful practice by conference, conciliation, or persuasion, whether or not there is a determination of probable cause or a conciliation agreement.
- (4) In any case of failure to eliminate the alleged unlawful practice by means of conference, conciliation, and persuasion, the Commission shall hold a public hearing to determine whether or not an unlawful practice has been committed. The Commission shall serve upon the respondent a statement of the charges made in the complaint and a notice of the time and place of the hearing. The hearing shall be held not less than ten days after the service of the statement of charges. The respondent shall have the right to file an answer, to appear at the hearing in person or be represented by an attorney, and to examine and cross-examine witnesses. A determination of probable cause shall in no way create a presumption of a violation.
- (5) If three-fourths of the Commissioners attending a duly constituted hearing determine that the respondent has engaged in an unlawful practice, the Commission shall state its findings of fact and conclusions of law and shall issue an order requiring the respondent to cease and desist from the unlawful practice. If the Commission fails to determine that the respondent has engaged in an unlawful practice, the Commission shall so state and shall issue an order dismissing the complaint.
- (6) In connection with an investigation of a complaint filed under this subsection, the Commission or its designated representatives at any reasonable time may request access to the premises, records, and documents relevant to the complaint and the right to examine, photograph, and copy evidence, but all such evidence not otherwise presented at a public hearing shall be of a confidential nature.
- (7) Where a real estate broker or a real estate salesperson has failed to comply with any order issued by the Commission or has been found to have committed an unfair housing practice in violation of this chapter, the Commission shall notify in writing the president of the local real estate board of the failure to comply or of the violation.
